Creative & Bold: Celebrating You

Rev. Denise Cawley

From our abolitionists and suffragette ancestors to the Unitarian ministers who traveled to Europe to bring relief to hundreds of endangered Jews and refugees to our UU ministers who went to Selma in 1965, our spiritual ancestors have been stepping out boldly, using creativity to deliver love in the most needed places. Often these efforts have been led by youth and younger adults. Our fellow congregants are also bringing creativity and justice to corners of our communities that need it. Today's service will highlight bold and creative methods of making more love and justice in our world. Join us in celebrating.

Chalice Hymn #123 Spirit of Life

*Spirit of Life, come unto me.
Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion.
Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;
Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.
Roots hold me close; wings set me free;
Spirit of Life, come to me, come to me.*
